No cost! All are welcome!

Join Dr. Christopher Blum in the first comprehensive study program to present a specifically Catholic worldview that addresses the Protestant Reformation, 500 years later.

This six-episode series explores the lives of Saints Ignatius of Loyola, Thomas More, Francis de Sales, Philip Neri, Charles Borromeo, and Teresa of Avila. The True Reformers series introduces you to these great saints. You'll want to stay friends with them for life, even unto eternity, as you discover how they spearheaded the Church's rebirth after the turbulence and confusion caused by the Protestant Reformation.

Dr. Christopher Blum is a professor at the Augustine Institute and also serves as Academic Dean. With a background in history and philosophy of science from Notre Dame, he specializes in Church history, drawing practical insights for today. Dr. Blum has co-authored several books as well as translating and editing Rose Among Thorns by Saint Francis de Sales.
